

ATTORNEY CALLS HER AN IMPOSTER.

Bonnie LeMar Denounced as a Blackmailer by the Man Who Once Defended Her.

WOODED AND WON BY NOBLEMAN

Was Cruel to the Child Claimed to be
Her to the Dunsmore's Millions.

The latest turn in the Bonnie LeMar case is the denouncing of her as an imposter by the attorney who once defended her.

The LeMar woman, it will be remembered, claims that her son, who was kidnapped seven years ago, is heir to the millions of the Dunsmore of Brookmore, England, being the issue of a young nobleman to whom she was once married. The kidnapping took place while this lord was suing her for divorce, his family having disowned him for marrying a woman of the half-world. There was much sympathy for the woman as she had not apparently followed the methods of an adventurer. She was wooed by the young nobleman while he was seeking health in the mountains of Colorado. She is now trying to find her child in Colorado.

Attorney F. Van Norman, who began the case for her, now declares, in a statement issued from his New York office, that Bonnie LeMar is the worst kind of an imposter, blackmailer and thief everything bad. He says: "The facts are that about a year after her divorce from O'Brien and when matters were getting pretty warm for her in Denver, she went for a cruise to Europe. She was in the company of a man named Roy LeMar, who was married to her, but the story of the marriage has never been confirmed. While in Europe, she adopted a baby which she claimed off as the child of LeMar, who left her, and she again engaged in her notorious practices."

A CRUEL MOTHER.
"Her extreme cruelty to the child led the neighbors to intervene and call in the agents of the Humane society, who took the child away from her. She instituted proceedings in the courts to recover possession of the child, but could neither prove its maternity nor that she was its mother. Judgment was rendered in favor of the Humane society, which succeeded in having the child adopted by some reputable family."

In 1889 or 1890 Bonnie, or Bonnevive LeMar, as she now calls herself, at that time known as Bonnie O'Brien, secured a divorce from her husband of four months, William O'Brien, a day clerk in Charlotte's hotel, one of the noted hostlers of Colorado. Before this she had been divorced from a previous husband, had been behind bars in a minor part and was notorious as the mistress of a former governor of the state, who threw her out because of her blackmailing propensities. The name of the divorce was assumed one, a stage name.

About this time she was arrested by a paramour whom she had victimized. Through the efforts of her husband, she was released on bail by a justice of the peace, who was called up at 4 o'clock in the morning. The case was dropped for want of prosecution, the complaining witness not wishing to have the occurrence made public.

AN ARTFUL DODGER.
"After her divorce from O'Brien her life became a kaleidoscope one. Her habit was to catch by her tricks some victim whom she had victimized. Usually her victims were lured to her own apartments, where she separated them from their cash.

"At about this period she used the matrimonial columns of the Denver papers to advantage, describing herself, not by name, but as a rich widow desiring to marry. When any one called she would first draw them out skillfully and then unfold the fact that she herself was the charmer. If the applicant had no money she made short work of him.

"Finally she became so well known that she was thoroughly reviled that she disappeared and her whereabouts remained a mystery until the publication of the recent sensational report, doubtless inspired by herself, recalling the fact that she had been living in the mining camp of Dillon, Mont., where she is a prominent member and leader of the diamond-club."

IN DARKEST AFRICA.

Harris and James Families Wreak
Vengeance on One Another.

A row between the Harris and James families, colored residents of Victoria alley, led to the arrest of Thomas Harris and wife, Alberta Harris, upon the charge of petty larceny. Two or three days ago Mrs. Harris and Mrs. James became involved in a fight, and Thomas Harris came to his wife's rescue and gave the James woman a black eye. The next day Edward James took it upon himself to avenge his wife's defeat, and meeting Harris on the street, the two started in on what promised to be an interesting pugilistic bout. The officers of the law intervened and arrested James.

Mrs. James was bound to be revenged, so she called upon the head waiter at the Commercial club, where Harris had been employed, and informed him that there was a quantity of stolen silverware in Harris' room. An investigation was made and it was discovered that silverware, dishes and table linens were missing from the club's pantry. Patrolman Palmer was detailed to search Harris' room, where he found the missing articles. Officer Brown was sent in search of Harris and found him playing ball on the Eighteenth ward grounds. He was taken to the police station and locked up. His wife was also placed under arrest, and the two were held in answer to the charge of petty larceny.

HEALTHY MOTHERS.
Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Roscher's Cherry Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any cough, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size, 75c. At all druggists.

MANY PEOPLE HAVE CATARRH OF STOMACH AND DON'T KNOW IT.

A Beautiful Ohio Belle Cured of Catarrh by the Use of Pe-ru-na.

Miss Althea Glynton, 1421 Chapel St., Cincinnati, Ohio, writes:
"My system was very much run down, from an excess of parties, late suppers and unreasonable hours without the proper rest."

"My appetite had failed me, I had frequent headaches and a lassitude which left me no ambition whatever. I lost nearly twenty pounds, and was advised to take a good tonic and rest. I had heard so much of Peru-na that I decided to try it. In a very short time my appetite returned and with it ambition and a rested feeling, and I was soon my usual self, had regained most of the flesh lost and am very grateful to you for what Peru-na has done for me."—Althea Glynton.

No medicine in the world has cured more cases of dyspepsia than Peru-na. The reason for this is that dyspepsia in a great majority of cases depends upon catarrh of the stomach.

Miss Ida Freyberg, 530 North 4th St., Sheboygan, Wis., writes:
"It is with great pleasure that I recommend Peru-na to all who are afflicted with catarrh. I was much troubled with that disease and had tried many doctors' prescriptions and many proprietary medicines, and had about given up in despair of ever being cured of my trouble, when a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Peru-na. I took one bottle and felt so much relieved that I got another, which benefited me much, and a third entirely cured me. I can always say a good word for Peru-na."—Miss Ida Freyberg.

Mrs. Jessie Colton, 489 East 19th St., New York City, writes:
"Through overwork and anxiety in my business I was very much run down. Had loss of appetite, and what was worse than that, loss of sleep at night. I was afraid I would have to consult a physician, when one of my customers advised me to try Peru-na, as it had made her well and strong. I began to take it, and in a few days began to feel stronger, and from the first dose I slept at night without awakening. I took only two bottles; now I am well, but I am never without Peru-na in the house."—Mrs. Jessie Colton.

Peru-na cures all such cases of dyspepsia, simply because it cures catarrh wherever located. The reason so many cases of dyspepsia suffer on and on without any relief, trying this medicine and that medicine, is that these conditions are not recognized as catarrh of the stomach.

Any one suffering from dyspepsia, having tried the ordinary remedies without relief, would be safe to assume that their cases one of catarrh of the stomach, and should at once begin a course of Peru-na. Peru-na is sure to cure these cases. It never fails.

We have on file many thousand testimonials like the ones given above. We can only give our readers a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements we are receiving every month. No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic and grateful letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Peru-na.

masked ball at Calder's park has been changed from Friday to Thursday.

There will be sacred concerts tomorrow at Saltair, Lagoon, Calder's, Salt Palace and Liberty Park.

By wearing their badges, indicating that they are over 70 years of age, the old folks residing in Pioneer stake will, on Tuesday next, be taken to Saltair free of charge. This part of the program will be under the direction of Mesdames Annie Poulton and Lizzie Watson. In the evening there will be an excellent program of square dancing, interspersed with fancy bicycle riding. Other features may be decided upon later on, so that all who go will have a most enjoyable time. The idea is to make the day a thorough social success and all are cordially invited to participate. Those who go should not forget to wear the Mutual Improvement button, to be had of stake officers and committeemen.
